"We at Lakeside Rods use Street & Performance products, Period. I'd rather be building cars than on the phone ordering parts. ONE call to S & P gets you everything you need! Everything from motors to trans. to wiring harnesses to chrome and the best tech help is available.

Best

"In 1991 our '37 Sweptback Coupe made a statement. Twelve years later, the Street & Performance products under the hood continue to make a statement for performance and reliability."

POSIES

"I feel there are three things to think about when you are building a car that can "make it or break it". Number 1 is engineering. Number 2 is detail and Number 3 is design. After doing business with you for years, I have found that Street & Performance practices these three things very well."
